

Dušan Sekulić and the band concert

The concert of Dušan Sekulić and the band as part of the tour 'Love isn't just a word' is a musical performance spectacle which encompasses the combination of several types of media and arts in order to produce the final effect which leaves one amazed.

The music part as the dominant element of this spectacle is designed in a way which would keep the audience on the edge of their seats waiting for new tones and new events. The elements of other arts like acting or dance are added within the musical parts so that certain messages would be emphasized and so that the audience could feel the emotions. These elements have been used so that at certain parts of musical pieces, the audience can not only enjoy what they hear but can also 'see' certain tones.

Dušan Sekulić, alone in the beginning and later with the band, plays and evokes the atmosphere of many foreign and domestic composers' works. They are reiterated one after another, so it almost goes unnoticed when, in one breath, they move from classical music to tango, jazz, pop, trap, grunge and rock.

The entire concept of the concert is conceived so that the audience is always served with something new and surprising. They have just about enough time to enjoy every segment of the concert and to create synergy and magic leading to catharsis and thrill together with the artists on stage.

The band's energy and devotion leave nobody indifferent and Dušan Sekulić's brilliant musical skills, playfulness and virtuosity satisfy even the most demanding ears and eyes.
